

Glancy Rehabilitation Center Checklist

Criteria	Glancy Rehabilitation Center	Other Provider
Is the provider accredited by The Joint Commission?	√
Has the program demonstrated success in treating your specific condition?	√
Is the program led by a physician who specializes in rehabilitation, and is he or she board-certified?	√
Are there daily physician visits?	√
Does the provider offer a team approach with interdisciplinary therapy services provided by full-time staff?	√
Does the provider offer patient and family education that is specific to your diagnosis?	√
Do family members and patients meet with the physician and the rehabilitation team to set goals and discuss progress?	√
Are patients provided training in skills using real world therapy, including, as needed, cooking, shopping, appliance use, social situations, conversation and navigating community surfaces?	√
Is the environment clean, pleasant and cheerful?	√
Are therapies provided in a specialized rehabilitation gym with state-of-the-art rehabilitation technology?	√
Are weekly team conferences conducted on each patient and attended by the physician, case manager, registered nurses, therapists and other treating disciplines?	√
Does the provider offer comprehensive discharge planning to assist with the transition to home?	√
Are support groups available for patients and families?	√
Does the provider offer swallowing evaluations and the treatment of swallowing disorders on site?	√
Does the program have medical support in the case of a complication or new illness?	√
Does the program offer a continuum of care from inpatient to outpatient therapy to transitional fitness?	√
How does the provider measure the effectiveness and efficiency of its services?	FIM* scores, patient surveys
*Functional Independence Measures – measures progress of functional skills, such as eating, grooming and dressing.
How is the provider licensed?	Inpatient acute rehabilitation
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Inpatient acute rehabilitation</li> <li>• Long-term acute care</li> <li>• Skilled nursing facility</li> </ul>
How many rehabilitation patients are treated per year?	Approximately 650
What percentage of patients return home?	Approximately 66%	